The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered in jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s naughtiness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper-time. His hands are black with ink and he has a dirty look about his eyes. He is not to be chatted to about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom that he will be dropped school that afternoon and leafs through Tom’s copybook to see what he has written. Tom’s hand is still covered with black ink but she needn’t have been worried. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house,hears a reeling and stumbles in the street. He is whistling. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg Tom meets Huckleberry Finn. Tom and the new arrival exchange pleasantries and eventually choose the newcomer as a new friend.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to wash the fence. A man passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of suitcase. He almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.

She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects softly on Tom's misdeeds and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. He looks a little pale and has about his shoulders. During supper, Aunt Polly asks, "Did you go to school today?" Tom answers, "I was sick," and Aunt Polly is satisfied. Aunt Polly is informed that Tom has been skipping school that afternoon and going into town. Tom's half-brother, Bob, is not there, his clothes are still upon him, but flat. Tom's half-brother, Huck, has stolen the corn he was supposed to plant and eventually chases the newcomer all the way home.
