A Clearing In The Forest Law Life And Mind
a clearing in the forest law life and mind
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with mud, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievousness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper. He is still dressed in his overalls and is still sooty from running through the mud. He has told his aunt all about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks Tom what he has been doing. Tom tells her he has been skipping school that afternoon and went over to the farm of Mr. Driskell. Aunt Polly scolds him for it, but she is satisfied.

Tom and the new arrivals during the evening are talking about Tom’s adventures and eventually chases the newcomers all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of medicinal sap. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
