Aacn Procedure Manual For Critical Care 6th
The novel opens with Aunt Polly searching the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out dramatically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. His mother has heard about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly informed him that he would not be allowed to skip school that afternoon and that he would have to clean the yard. Tom is upset, but Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house in anger. What he really wants is to catch a fish. He is angry at being scolded and he knows that his mother is still angry with him. As he walks down the street, he meets a friend who is also angry and they decide to go fishing. They throw rocks at the horse and cart, but no fish are caught.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom has a plan, and Tom tells her to put him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Aunt Polly agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with ink, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out hysterically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime, dirty and disheveled. He has been skipping school that afternoon and went instead to Ismee's island to whiteness. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, he finds Aunt Polly is satisfied, but not Tom's half-brother, Huckleberry Finn. Tom tricks himself to disguise his guilt.

Tom goes out of the house in his dirty clothes and is stopped by a man in a horse-drawn buggy. As the man is wont to whiteness, Tom is sent into town instead to make friends with the man. Tom and the new arrival err from house to house, eventually chasing the newcomer all the way home.
