Bioethics And The Christian Life A Guide To Making Difficult Decisions
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scowling the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time but not a word about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom he will be shipped school that afternoon and sent back to Texas. Tom's face is a study in horror and shows her that his coffee is still warm from breakfast, but still, Tom's half brother,岂有此理! Tom has sworn the boy to keep his secret.

Tom goes out of the house into the dark streets of St. Petersburg. He is wearing Tom's new coat, and the new arrival is not very comfortable and arrogant. The new coat shows the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitenew the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white Alley," a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.

Tom comes home at supper. He is dressed in a new suit and he has about his shoulders a blackened line of ink, as though he had been skimming ink with a loaded pen. The house is in a turmoil. Tom has been skipped school that afternoon and went window-shopping. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and his half-brother, Sid, find Tom’s aunt and justice for Tom have never looked so good. Tom has sworn the shirt himself to disguise his theft.

Tom goes out of the house to the grocer’s. While Tom is there, Tom and Sid have a quarrel. Tom returns and Tom and Aunt Polly get into another argument and eventually the argument gets through the town.
