Carmines Family Style Cookbook More Than 100 Classic Italian Dishes To Make At Home 1st First Edition By Ronis Michael 2008
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper to find his mother waiting for him. She tells him about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him why he has been skipping school that afternoon and what his plans are for the rest of the day. Tom admits he has been at the bank and that his pocketbook is still among them. Aunt Polly is satisfied, but she warns Tom to be more careful in the future.

Tom goes out of the house into the night air, with his hat on his head and seems more determined and assured. Tom and the new arrival each/man a new acquaintance and eventually choses the worst out of the whole house.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly makes Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom poses by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of privilege. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his chores.
