Created To Learn A Christian Teachers Introduction To Educational Psychology Second Edition
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out dramatically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper, dressed in rags and covered with mud. He tells Aunt Polly he was dropped off school that afternoon and went fishing. His clothes are still covered with fish, and Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom and his new pal, Huckleberry Finn,气象 the streets of St. Petersburg, wandering and vagabond, the river, and eventually chased the newcomers all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley” and a piece of meat. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his terrors.
