The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she loses him yet again with too much.

Tom comes home at supper, still covered in jam and the smell of wildflowers. He has about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him if he has been skipping school that afternoon and what wonders he has seen; and Tom, as usual, boasts about his adventures and how he has saved up enough money to buy himself a new shirt and a pair of shoes.

Tom and the new arrival assist in the whitewashing. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom met Huckleberry Finn and eventually chooses the newcomer as the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
