Developing An E Health Strategy A Commonwealth Workbook Of Methodologies Content And Models
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects morosely on Tom’s mischief and how she let him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime and is not in the least sorry for his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly mentions that Tom is to be skipped school that afternoon and evening. However, when Tom and his friend Ben Sawyer return home, they show her that Ben’s basket is still at school. Tom’s half-brother, Sid, has arranged this with Ben. Tom and Ben are quite happy with their trick. Tom has sworn the boy to secrecy himself to disguise his guilt.

Tom goes out of the house into the back yard to smoke a couple of cigarettes, robbec and expectant. When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his disheveled clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “Pipe Alley,” a kind of medal. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
