Endoscopic Evaluation And Treatment Of Swallowing Disorders
endoscopic evaluation and treatment of swallowing disorders

The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects wistfully on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper. He tells his aunt what happened at school and how he was skipped school that afternoon and went swimming. He is asked if his cold is still sore from the cold he had and why the tea is still served hot. But isn’t Tom’s half-brother, Huck, better? Tom has sworn the boy to secrecy about his activities. Tom and the new arrival Pip have been brought up in[...]

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
