Food Nutrition And Medical Nutrition Therapy Through The Life Cycle
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and love the lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. The house is quiet. He has told his master that he has been skipping school that afternoon and was warned that if he was caught, he would be whipped. But Tom quickly changes his mind, planning to fool his master. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house in search of Ado. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, he spots a boy who looks like him. Tom and the new arrival each try to explain his identity to the other, eventually chasing the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of medal. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his chores.

Tom comes home at suppertime late. He has been playing hooky from school without telling his aunt. While she was making supper, Tom went fishing and fished so hard that his clothes are still sopping wet, and he has coffee as well. Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom has sworn to himself to desist from all such adventures. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom has watched a boy whose father was heaped with cork and cardboard. Tom and the new arrival chat and Tom invites him to his house, where the boy is welcomed and eventually shares the newcomers all the way home.
