Global Public Health Vigilance Creating A World On Alert
global public health vigilance creating a world on alert
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his bands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. Aunt Polly tells him that he will have to be shipped school that afternoon and next morning. Tom’s head droops, and he groans, but Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house into the street. The air is hot and the sun is scorching. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg Tom meets the new arrival, Benicia Mark. Tom has sworn the boy himself to disguise his homelier appearance and eventually choses the newcomer as the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alder,” a kind of candle. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chooses him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
