How To Become A Professional Photographer An Essential Guide To Creating A Successful Career In Photography
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with ink, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s misbehavior and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper with a face that tells all about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him if he has been skipped school that afternoon and what he has been doing. Tom tells her about a cache of treasure he and his friends discovered in the woods. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house immediately to tell his friends the news. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the other boys discuss the cache of treasure and eventually choose the six of them to go after it.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of whistle. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.

Tom comes home at supper time. Aunt Polly has just met with the schoolmaster who has told her all about Tom’s adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly promises Tom that if he behaves next time, she will not be so strict. Then she wipes her mouth and shows him that her calico dress is still clean from the whisking. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the new arrival in town, Huck Finn, develop a strong bond and eventually choose the new comes for all the way home.
