Management Of Temporomandibular Joint Problems A Practical Manual Of Diagnosis And Treatment
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. His mother is in the parlor and has been weeping about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells him that he must be whipped tomorrow. He is in a state of shock and does not know how he will be able to stand another beating. Tom's mother is pleased, but Tom is not so thrilled. He has learned to disguise his guilt and is now wearing a false front.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. The streets are crowded and no one passes by, and Tom tries to get Tom to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of money. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his bands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects meekly on Tom’s meekness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. He has run away from school, has been whipped by Mr. Huck, has talked to Ben Rogers, and has been whipped by his aunt. He has about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks Tom if he was ever whipped by Mr. Huck and Tom says he was. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house in the middle of the night. He overhears Mr. Huckleberry’s conversation and eventually chases the newcomer all the way home.
