Nursing Consultation A Framework For Working With Communities 2nd Second Edition
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime, dressed in dirty clothes and looking very dejected. He has been skipped school that morning and went over to the river bank and dove into the stream. His clothes are still wet from the water, but his shirt is still on. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom and the new arrival confer about Tom’s plans for the next day. Tom has assured the aunt he will work hard and study for his exams. When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
