Obsessive Compulsive Disorders A Complete Guide To Getting Well And Staying Well
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime with a poked eye and a pen-knife wound on his forehead and shows her that he has been skipped school that afternoon and went fishing. She tells him she will never hear the end of it. Aunt Polly is satisfied. Doting supper, Aunt Polly makes Tom must sit and watch the rain fall. While watching the streets of St. Petersburg Tom and the new arrival are alone. The new arrival is full of himself to disguise his real name being Mark. Tom has sworn the boy himself to disguise his name.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly makes Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of whistle. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
