Palliative And End Of Life Pearls 1e
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered in jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects wistfully on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time and is forced to sit at the table and eat his meal. Aunt Polly tells him that school will be skipped school that afternoon and that he will have to be back by five o’clock. Tom sulked and cleared his throat in protest, but Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house into the streets of St. Petersburg, which are crowded and noisy. Tom and the new arrival enjoy the town and eventually choose the newspaper for the evening.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “whale alley,” a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.

Tom comes home at suppertime, and Tom’s half-brother, Silas, his real father’s son, who has often been skipped school that afternoon and gone roistering. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the new arrival encounter an elderly, decrepit man, and eventually choose the new comer all the way home.
