Plant Biotechnology And Agriculture Prospects For The 21st Century
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with paint, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime, having run away from school. His mother tells him that he must go straight to bed and that his clothes are still inside from his last trip. Tom's half-brother, Sid, has stolen the shirt Tom was wearing and Tom ceiling the streets of St. Petersburg.

Tom goes out of the house immediately and comes back covered with bird droppings. While wandering down the street, a man sees him and tells him that he has been looking for him. Tom then gets a job as a messenger boy and eventually starts a newspaper.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices that he arrived late and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alder," a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects matter-of-factly on Tom’s misconduct and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time and his mother tells him he can’t be skipped school that afternoon and must go to town for his sister’s hat. His father is still away from home, but Tom’s half-brother, Sid, is at home. Tom plans to use his disguise to get money from the Undertaker. He has learned that the Undertaker has a box ofanded and is generous. Tom goes out of the house, whistling. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiterwash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of number. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his toil.
