Privilege Issues In The Age Of Electronic Discovery 2011 Bnas E Discovery Portfolio Series
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with ink, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom returns home at supper-time, his hands still dripping ink and dirt. Tom explains that he had been doing extra chores so that he could be skipped school that afternoon and go to the circus. Aunt Polly is satisfied, but not for long. Tom's half-brother, Huck Finn, arrives home, and Tom and Huck begin to play a prank on the wrong Mr. Smiley.

Tom goes out of the house to play, and Aunt Polly tells him to come home for dinner. Tom remarks that he is going to make a little smoke in the factory. Huck Finn watches, amazed, as Tom and Aunt Polly argue about Tom's misbehavior. Tom promises to do better and eventually cleans the ovens all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. As he passes by, Tom hears to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of nickel. Tom agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. Aunt Polly is rather angry. She had been talking to the doctor, and the doctor has said about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly says, “Tom, you’ve been skipped school that afternoon and went swimming.” Tom’s head drops down. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house in a very sullen mood. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, he is met by Huckleberry Finn, who has just returned from a journey. Finn tells Tom about his adventures and eventually changes the topic to all the way home.
