The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with ink, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime to a stern lecture from Aunt Polly about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Ikey tells another story about a man who was skipped school that afternoon and went rowing. He had a leaky boat and drowned. Aunt Polly is satisfied, but all Tom’s friends think that his boat is still afloat and he is totally unscathed.

Tom and his new arrival companion, Huck Finn, meet in an enveloping fog and eventually choose the waterfront as the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing as return for a "whale apple," a kind of apple. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
