Sea Of Opportunity The Japanese Pioneers Of The Fishing Industry In Hawaii
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly looks, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s misbehavior and how the idea has got away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper. The evening is one of great excitement. He tells all about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly is satisfied. He has been skipped school that afternoon and went whitecap fishing. The fish are big, and people tell him his fishing is getting better and better. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alloy,” a kind of marble. His mother agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
