Social Housing Disadvantage And Neighbourhood Liveability Ten Years Of Change In Social Housing Neighbourhoods Housing And Society Series
The novel opens with Aunt Polly searching the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time with his face all dirty from his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks Tom how he has been in school that afternoon and what adventures he has had that day. Tom tells Aunt Polly that he rode his bike to school and then walked home. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom and the crew arrive early on the morning of the race. They are overconfident and arrogant. Tom goes out of the house and begins to whine.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white ally,” a kind of milestone. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
