Strangers At Home Amish And Mennonite Women In History Center Books In Anabaptist Studies
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scowering the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out dramatically. “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper and brings a bag of tobacco. His father, who has just been informed about his adventures, is not pleased. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom that he will be grounded for the next three weeks and will have to do his chores. Tom is dismayed, but Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom has arranged the plan himself to disgrace his father and himself.

Tom goes out of the house in search of adventure. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom meets Huckleberry Finn, a waif and an adventurer. Tom and the new arrival enter a house, find no one home, and eventually make their way into the house.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Sam passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of noose. Sam almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
The novel opens with Aunty Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tim Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tim cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunty Polly turns, Tim escapes over the fence. After Tim is gone, Aunty Polly reflects sorrowfully on Tim's naughtiness and how she let him get away with too much.

Tim comes home at supper with a brick of money for Aunty Polly, who is very pleased. Aunty Polly feels that perhaps Tim might have been a little too伤口ish. While watching the streets of St. Petersburg, Tim and Aunty Polly see a man in a black coat who appears to be a drunk. Aunty Polly is satisfied.

On the way home, Aunty Polly议事 to buy Tim a new coat. They decide to go to the store and buy something appropriate and eventually choose a new coat all the way home.

When he arrives home in the evening, Tim finds Aunty Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunty Polly sends Tim out to whitewash the fence. Tim passes by, and Tim tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of nag. Aunty Polly agrees, but Aunty Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tim alone with his tasks.
In New England a lot of rural restaurants have common tables - where you sit with “strangers” and pass the time of day. Traditional dining on cruise ships always strikes me as a plus - getting to know a small group over a series of dinners can be one of the better experiences.

May we learn from the Amish! Conservative Mennonites are the same way. Thank you Lori for this reminder of how we should be as Christians. Sadly we have experienced being denied help from the church we were attending in CA when my father in law passed and we needed help with our water bill.

Meg: [to Peter] You have no education, you have no interests, you just do whatever reckless thing you want to do, whenever you want to do it, without regard for anyone else. Oh, oh, oh, and when you’re not terrorizing the community with your impulsive escapades, you’re being a total jerk to your family! You shove your daughter’s face in your ass and you fart on it!

Podcasts can be listened to on a computer or you can download them and listen to them on an mp3 player. These podcasts cover a variety of topics that I’ve already written about in my dog training articles. Since not all people have the time to sit down and read these articles, I’ve created podcasts.
