The novel opens with Aunty Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sweeny. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunty Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunty Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she left him out without too much.

Tom comes home at supper-time. He has been expelled from school that afternoon and had been sent home by his master. Aunty Polly is satisfied. She has had her revenge. While wondering the streets of St. Pancras, Tom meets two boys, who are242
