The Art Of Educating With V Diagrams
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sorrowfully on Tom's mischievousness and how she lets him get away with so much.

Tom comes home at supper. He has a great deal to tell, considering his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly launches into a tirade about how Tom should not be skipped school that afternoon and must write a letter to Mr. Dooley explaining why he was late. Tom is not pleased, but he agrees. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house into the garden. As he walks along, he sees a stranger with a beard and mustache. Tom has seen the bearded man before, and he is not surprised. Aunt Polly is concerned about Tom's associations, but Tom is confident that he can handle the situation.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper and tells his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly learns that Tom has been skipped school that afternoon and went rainbow fishing. Tom continues his story and Aunt Polly says she is satisfied. Tom and the new arrival eat, then go upstairs to the attic. Tom shows himself to disagree his new companion and eventually chases the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his distasteful clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiten the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of snuff. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
