The Worst Hard Time The Untold Story Of Those Who Survived The Great American Dust Bowl
the worst hard time the untold story of those who
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered in jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s misbehavior and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt I love to say that Tom is a very well-fed boy. Tom has been skipping classes and Aunt Polly promises to beat him soundly if he is not well-behaved. When Tom and I say that he is still around the house, Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house in the afternoon and is eventually caught by Aunt Polly. He is given a thrashing. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom sees a man with a dog. Tom and the new arrival, a dog, become friends and eventually chase the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiten the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of snack. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chased him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
